MAKE KORAKIA YOUR OWN

Our historic petite resort is a 1.5-acre oasis in the heart of Palm Springs, comprised of the 1920s Moroccan hideaway created by artist Gordon Coutts and the Mediterranean villa next door, once owned by 1930s silent screen star J. Carol Naish.

Together, they form a hidden oasis of gardens, pools, lounges and fountains among 28 Mediterranean and Moroccan bungalows, guesthouses and villas. Cross the grand threshold of our iconic Moorish archway into our sunwashed courtyards, redolent of citrus and jasmine flowers.

With the stunning San Jacinto Mountains as your backdrop, your vows will be picturesque and unforgettable.

DESTINATION: ESCAPE

Weddings at Korakia are an escape with your closest friends and family. Greet the day with sun salutations and indulge in a full breakfast surrounded by citrus blossoms and olive trees in our Moroccan courtyard. Spend your afternoons relaxing with a book under the beams of our historic library or lounge by one of our saltwater pools. In the evening, stroll around the villas after the ritual lighting of our Moroccan lanterns, catch a classic movie projected outdoors on our Mediterranean deck, or relax under millions of stars in the desert sky.
